

Society of Certified Insurance Counselors (CIC) Recognizes NIA's Myrna Arriaga

Somerset, NJ, July 2010 -- The Society of Certified Insurance Counselors (CIC) recently honored Myrna N. Arriaga, CIC, of The NIA Group, a Marsh & McLennan Agency LLC company for dedication and leadership in the insurance industry.

Ms. Arriaga was awarded a certificate of achievement, recognizing five consecutive years of active affiliation with the Society of CIC. The CIC designation carries meaningful prestige in the insurance profession as it signifies commitment to advanced knowledge and customer service.

The Society's President, Dr. William T. Hold, CIC, CPCU, CLU, cited, "This accomplishment denotes outstanding achievement within the insurance profession. The high standards maintained by Ms. Myrna N. Arriaga will reflect positively on clients, associates and the insurance profession as a whole."

The Society of CIC is the founding program of The National Alliance for Insurance Education & Research, the nation's leading source of continuing education programs for the insurance and risk management industries. Other members of the organization include the Society of Certified Insurance Representatives (CISR), the Certified Risk Manager Program (CRM), and The National Research Academy.

###