

For Immediate Release:

NIA to Host June 22 Health Care Reform Seminar

Monday, May 17, Paramus, NJ - On Tuesday, June 22, 2010, The NIA Group, a Marsh & McLennan Agency LLC company, will host a complimentary seminar entitled “Understanding Health Care Reform and Its Impact on New Jersey Businesses and Their Employees” at the Hilton Woodbridge in Iselin, NJ. This is the third time NIA will present the two and half-hour program, which qualifies for Human Resources Certification continuing education credits, as a result of increased demand and interest from employers, including CEOs, CFOs and employee benefits managers, to receive more guidance on the topic.

Overview, Practical Guidelines are Cornerstones of Presentation

The seminar, taking place from 8:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m., provides a general overview of the legal, tax and employee benefits implications of the bill, with heightened emphasis placed on those provisions beginning from the March 23, 2010 passage of the bill and spanning the next 18 to 24 months. “The objective is to help employers understand and prepare for changes coming down the pike this year through 2012,” notes Denise Angleman, CPIW, The NIA Group’s EVP and head of Employee Benefits and a featured event speaker. “Our presentations will zero in on the tactical steps that employers can leverage today.”

About the Presenters

Other presenters include Steven J. Luckner and Keith R. McMurdy, attorneys with Coughlin Duffy LLP in Morristown, NJ, and Fox Rothschild LLP, NY, NY, respectively; the attorneys will provide a deconstruction and timeline of the bill’s provisions, including employer responsibilities, and practical steps to comply with the law. Dan Gibson, CPA, EA, and Sara Anderson, CPA, MST, tax accountants with Amper Politziner & Mattia LLP will cover the bill’s impending tax changes and how to plan for them; while, Denise Angleman of The NIA Group will cover the anticipated changes to benefit plan design and the steps employers should take to address them. The New Jersey State Chamber of Commerce will close the event with a discussion on how the bill will likely impact the New Jersey business community.

Event Registration

To register for the event, please call Caryn Ojeda of NIA at 201.336.1361 or click HERE. Seating is limited and reservations are required by June 18 in order to attend the program.

For Media Inquiries:

Please contact Kim Keating, Director of Marketing and Communications, The NIA Group at 201.336.1334 or kkeating@niagroup.com

#